

Introducing Written Content by Press Play Podcasts

Press Play Podcasts Host, Holly Wetzel, Named Editor-in-Chief as the Network Rolls Out New Article Segments.

Columbus, Ohio — March 7, 2022 — Today, Press Play Podcasts Announces That They Will Be Releasing Monthly Article Segments on Politics, Sports, and Culture.

Orange is Oranger co-host Holly Wetzel is set to take over as the Editor-in-Chief for Press Play Podcasts new article segments. The articles will cover a wide variety of topics including politics, sports, and culture. When we spoke to Holly about taking on this role she mentioned “I’ve always loved and appreciated the process of writing and telling a story. It’s an opportunity to share thoughts, feelings, facts, and fantasies. I get inspired to put pen to paper (or keyboard to screen!) in hopes to inform, entertain, and feel. Our lives move so fast each day and having a fortunate chance to capture some of those moments day in and day out by having them written is a special opportunity.”

The first articles are set to release every month and can be viewed by clicking the links below or visiting the official Press Play Podcast Network website at pressplaypodcasts.com/articles.

Letter from the Editor March 2022 - Holly Wetzel

From the Sewer to the Playoffs - By Sam Amico

Damon Reviews the Oscars - By Damon Royster

Hand-in-Hand - By Chase Smith

The Press Play Podcast Network exists to empower hosts and create high quality, professional, engaging content that listeners love. The network is made up of a diverse range of fantastic shows, many of them specific to Ohio. From covering professional and college sports to life, leadership and ministry, the ever-growing network has something for everyone.

###